

This figure displays a 10x10 heatmap visualization of a handwritten digit '4'. The background is a solid red color, representing a low value. The digit '4' is formed by a cluster of yellow and orange pixels, indicating higher values. The color scale ranges from red (low) to yellow (high), with a gradient of orange and red in between. The digit is centered in the upper-left quadrant of the grid.