

The image displays a 10x10 grid where each cell's color represents a value. The color scale ranges from red (low) to yellow (high). A handwritten digit '4' is visible, composed of yellow and orange cells, primarily located in the upper-left area of the grid. The rest of the grid is predominantly red, indicating low values.